Circulation: Circulation of library materials decreased 3.42% in June over last year's levels. The gates at the Main Library are still not working properly and are at the end of their lifecycle. The Assistant Director distributed Circulation by IType reports dated June 2014 and June 2015.

Financial: As is typical in the month of July, no financial report was distributed.

M Staffing: Final interviews with the two candidates for Assistant Director of Technology will occur on July 16. The Director hopes that the committee will be able to deliberate that day and make an offer the next day and ideally have someone in place by August 15. Mahasen Khamaisi has submitted her resignation, and is moving back to Israel. A part-time Library Assistant for Putterham has been hired and the Director is trying to hire another. Additionally, the Director hopes to receive emergency funding from the Town to hire a temporary replacement for Eileen Gallagher, who has now been out for a year, and whose return date is uncertain. Currently, there are 23 applicants for Mary Egan-James's position, and the Director will start interviews as soon as possible. It was moved to authorize up to $200.00 from unrestricted trust funds towards a retirement gift for Mary. This motion was seconded and passed unanimously. The Local History Librarian II position has been posted with the Town.

Outreach: The Director met with Susan Rack from the Rotary Club to discuss a partnership with them and some of the book bike trips. She has also reached out to the Brookline Education Foundation and the Brookline Community Foundation in an effort to see if anyone has successfully streamlined their restricted funds. The Director distributed her report on attending the ALA conference.

Quarterly Professional Development: The staff appreciated each other's presentations about the conferences that folks attended this year. The Director received positive feedback about how interesting it was to hear about the ALA, MLA, MLS, NELA and BEA events, and many others.

M Discretionary Fund: It was moved to authorize $500.00 to the Assistant Director's discretionary fund. This motion was seconded and passed unanimously.
